Video Clip 3: Community Support

Brianna: Lytton is really supportive of each other. Like, everybody wants everybody to thrive, and they'll support you rather than sourcing it from outside of Lytton.

Q: Yes.

Brianna: Yeah, that's my experience.

Q: How big is Lytton? How many people live there?

Paula: Geeze... I think it's about 2,000 in the area.

Q: Okay.

Paula: You'd have to double-check those numbers though.

Q: Yeah, just curious. I mean, I have heard... I think I've driven through. It's certainly a name we know. I just wondered how big it is.

Brianna: It is a village. It's not a town, so that's a clue as to how small it is.

Q: That's nice. It sounds much better than Kelowna, which is way too big. In terms of trends that you see, how long have you been operating this business?

Paula: Since... 2015 was our first year. And then, 2018 turned into... We did the farmers' market through the year, but the year-end harvest I gave away.
